

Manifesto - Moa & Kit for Presidents!

To those of you who know us, hwætho dear kinsmen! Vote for us! To those of you who have in some amazing way managed to avoid us, let us introduce ourselves:

I'm Moa, the crazy Swedish blonde in second year who loves languages and grammar... and Celts. You may know me as Bede, the lead singer of Bede and the Venerables, of Yule Play and Black-Tie Dinner fame. I have now spent a productive year as Vice President of the ASNaC Society, bringing to you an all-new ASNaC event known as the Yule Play (or, more informally, Gesta Live) as well as organising this year's Black-Tie Dinner at Hughes Hall. It's been an absolute pleasure being part of the committee and doing things to improve the ASNaC experience, as it were, for the members of the Society, and together with Kit I aspire to keep the Society active and help it flourish during our time as Presidents, should we be elected.

I'm Kit - hopefully you all know me, I'm the tall one with the hats! I'm standing for joint-Presidency of the Society with Moa for the next term of office. If we are elected, I see my role as some form of tether-cable for Moa's more, erm, extravagant ideas, while generally running round aiding and abetting the committee's plans. We will also continue the grand ASNaC Society tradition and arrange guest lectures and other academic talks for general delight and delectation. For the last year, I have been an editor of the widely-acclaimed, or rather, notorious magazine Gesta Asnacorum, and I have been a member of the JAC for this year and the last.

Our aims as a team for the Society are to:

- Increase the number of guestspeakers
- Increase graduate involvement
- Maintain fine ASNaC traditions, such as ASNaC Lunch, ASNaC Pub and the publication of Gesta Asnacorum, as well as new 'traditions', such as the Yule Play
- Encourage members of the Society to spread the word about ASNaC and raise interest (and awareness!) among potential applicants
- Ensure that the 'annual' ASNaC trip actually does take place next year
- Ensure that members of the Society are kept well-informed on Society activities
- Incorporate feedback from Society members into the management of the Society

***Vote for Moa & Kit for a continued ASNaCtastic and prosperous Society!***
